VI. Finance Committee Report

Ms. Donnelly summarized the August 9th meeting of the CSC Finance Committee, where PFM gave an overview of the investment funds. She added that the full report can be found in the Finance Committee meeting information packet and that all Council members are welcome to join committee meetings for these investment reports.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer reminded Members that they had agreed with Commissioner Furr at the June meeting to advertise maintaining a flat millage rate to provide more flexibility for a final decision at TRIM, as the Council can easily lower the advertised millage rate between July and the final September votes, but cannot raise it without going through an arduous and costly process. She shared that the final property values released July 1st showed an overall increase of 11.61%, which was substantially more than projected. She also noted that the current estimate of Unassigned Fund Balance is $33,913.785. She highlighted the three millage rate options as discussed by the Finance Committee, explaining that maintaining the current millage rate of 0.4699 would require $13,338,000 in Fund Balance to balance the budget, a mid-range millage rate of 0.4500 would require $17,829,500 in Fund Balance to balance the budget, and a roll-back rate of 0.4305 would require $22,300,000 in Fund Balance. She noted that after a thorough discussion that took into consideration the proposed budget, community needs, and the need to ensure sufficient fund balance would be available in the future is the tax base should fall, the Finance Committee recommended the mid-range millage rate of 0.4500, which provides more stability. She pointed out that the impact to the taxpayer between the mid-range millage rate and roll back rate was minimal. A homeowner of a home with a net taxable value of $500,000, would pay $224 at the mid-range rate of 0.4500 and $215 at the rollback rate.

ACTION: Commissioner Furr made a motion to approve the revised Tentative Millage Rate of 0.4500 for FY 22/23, as presented. The motion was seconded by Ms. Korn and passed with an opposing vote from Mr. Powers and an abstention from Judge Africk-Olefson, who is statutorily prohibited from voting on the millage rate.

VII. President's Report

a) Good of the Order

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer shared a thank you email from a preschool provider who was grateful to have CSC-funded nurses at her pre-school during the pandemic.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer shared that nearly 700 Broward County 16-18 year old youth gained real-life work experience and learned valuable workplace soft skills as part of the CSC-funded 2022 Summer Youth Employment Program, which was provided by CareerSource Broward. The youth worked for an eight-week period between June and August, earning $14 per hour. This year's participating employers included Advanced Roofing Inc., City of Fort Lauderdale, City of Hollywood, The Las Olas Company/Riverside Hotel, School Board of Broward County, Broward County Libraries Division, City of Oakland Park, and the Greater Fort Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce. Members viewed a related CBS news clip.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer highlighted this year's Transition to Independent Living (TIL) Graduation Ceremony, which celebrated a total of 129 graduates (19 middle school, 73 high school, 20 certification, 11 AA, 5 BA, and 1 JD).

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer highlighted two recent "Meet and Greet" events that were hosted by CSC, one with State Attorney Harold Pryor and CSC's New DAY providers, and another with the BSO CPIS team and CSC Family Support providers.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer highlighted this year's successful Back-To-School Extravaganza, which returned to an in-person format in three locations. She praised the efforts of the schools, school social workers, HandsOn Broward, and CSC staff, including Mr. Andrew Leone (Director of Communications and Community Engagement), Sharetta Remikie (Chief Equity and Community Engagement Officer), Ms. Danielle Bachelder (Community Engagement Manager), and Ms. Alexia Bridges (Media & Outreach Communications Specialist).

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer highlighted the Harvard Child & Family Well Being Accelerator Grant Steering Committee kick-off, noting that the Broward collaborative was one of five chosen nationally to participate in this technical assistance grant to increase the finding and uptake of kinship placements. Ms. Liberta stated she is looking forward to the assistance with implementing processes that fit our community. She pointed out that once this area improves, there are so many other child welfare quality indicators that will also improve. She expressed appreciation for CSC bringing this opportunity to the community partners.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer highlighted this year's successful Candidate Connection, which returned to an in-person format that expanded upon past formats to include County Commission candidates in addition to State House and Senate candidates and included "mingling" time for providers to individually share information about their organizations with the candidates. There were more than 100 participants and 15 candidates. She thanked community partners Jewish Federation of Broward County, United Way of Broward County, the Nonprofit Executive Alliance of Broward County, as well as CSC's Government Affairs Manager, Ms. Megan Turetsky.

The Conference was presented by the Family Resource Center of the South Atlantic and sponsored by Wake County Human Services.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer also shared that she will participate this afternoon in the "Contributing Factors" panel at OIC's 2022 Middle Class Summit.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer noted that the Youth Summit/CSC 20th Anniversary culminating event will be held September 23rd at the Signature Grand.

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer drew attention to the newest edition of the Family Resource Guide. Copies were at the dais for Members. She noted that this publication is tied to CSC's other FY 22/23 related publications with a green-themed cover.

b) Gubernatorial Appointee Process

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer gave a reminder that the terms of the Council's five Gubernatorial appointees are co-terminus with the Governor and will therefore end in January 2023. Current members and Broward residents are welcome to apply through a process that is led by the Broward County Commission. Statute requires the County Commission to send the Governor a minimum of three nominees for each of the five seats. The application will be made available in November, and the Governor, by statute, will have 45 days upon receipt of nominees' names to make his appointments. She did point out that past experience dictates that current gubernatorial appointees should be prepared to continue their service on the Council until the Governor makes his appointments, which in reality could possibly be one to two years.

ACTION: Commissioner Furr made a motion to approve renewal of the Florida International University's (FIU) MOST Contract for the Reading Explorers Program, as presented. She also shared their Fire Department's efforts to provide first responders with kits to assist them when they interact with children with autism at accident scenes and other emergency calls.

XIV. Council Members' Roundtable: TIL System of Care Update

Ms. Arenberg Seltzer introduced the topic and presenters for the Roundtable, noting that the FLITE Center was founded 15 years ago to meet the need for a central place for young people in the dependency system to gather. She stated that the vision was simple, youth could receive their checks and have access to a variety of resources. She credited the successful efforts of the Center's first CEO, Kristen Guerrise, and noted that over the years, Ms. Christine Frederick (FLITE Center CEO) and Ms. Cara Malave (FLITE Center CPO) have done amazing things to take this community resource to the next level. She pointed out that earlier in the meeting the Council approved administrative support that will hopefully provide the infrastructure needed to advance their plans.

Ms. Frederick thanked the Council for the expanded funding, pointing out that it will be life changing for the Center. She gave the history and an overview of the FLITE Center, noting that it was created in 2009 through a partnership between the Community Foundation of Broward, the United Way of Broward County, and the Junior League of Greater Fort Lauderdale with the intent of increasing access to services for youth aging out of the foster care system. Their mission is to guide those aging out of foster care and other vulnerable youth for successful transition to independence through education, employment, housing, wellness and system of care coordination. She added that CSC and the Jim Moran Foundation have been partners from the beginning.

She highlighted CSC's funding and involvement in the TIL System since 2004 through what was then called the Future Prep Program, which had three providers originally and a heavy focus on youth aging out of foster care. She explained that over time, Future Prep evolved into CSC's current HYT Program with an expanded focus to include additional populations and services to 740 youth annually, provided by more than 40 various agencies and organizations. The expanded population now includes relative care youth, DJJ youth, high school youth at risk of not graduating or those out of school and not working. The current CSC HYT providers include Camelot Community Care (75 youth), Gulf Coast Jewish Family and Community Services (90 youth), Harmony Development Center (75 youth), HANDY (150 youth), Henderson Behavioral Health (55 youth), HOMES, Inc. (19 youth), Memorial Healthcare System (175 youth), PACE Center for Girls (50 youth), and SunServe (70 youth).

She explained that FLITE is the TIL System of Care hub, creating a collective impact model across Broward County for TIL youth with the goal of being able to make services available to youth at one location. She highlighted the TIL System of Care services available at the FLITE Center, which include Health & Wellness (crises intervention, counseling, psychosocial education, primary care) in partnership with the Broward Behavioral Health Coalition (BBHC) and the Children's Diagnostic & Treatment Center (CDTC): Human Trafficking (24/7) emergency stabilization, wrap-around case management) in partnership with Voices for Florida's Open Doors Outreach Network; Navigation (public benefits, child care, transportation, life coaching); Education (College Boost Program-GED, peer advocacy, life skills) in partnership with Broward College's Broward UP initiative, ELC, and HANDY; Employment (skills training, internships, certifications, job coaching) in partnership with CareerSource and various employers; and Housing (placement, rapid rehousing, emergency landing space) in partnership with HOMES Inc., Florida Housing Finance Corp., and local housing authorities.

Ms. Malave highlighted the FLITE Center's efforts to connect youth to community services and partners, including referrals for CSC's life coaching services, SNAP/Medicaid/WIC/TANF benefits (DCF), child care waivers (Early Learning Coalition), bus passes and transportation (Broward County), and food distribution (United Way). She further highlighted FLITE's assistance efforts in the areas of education, employment, housing, wellness, and human trafficking.

Ms. Frederick highlighted the Center's impact, stating that for FY 20/21, FLITE served 541 youth in the Education Department, with 65 served in the College Boost/GED program; 514 in the Employment Department; 452 in the Housing Department; 462 in the Wellness Department; 1,360 in the Resource Navigation Department; and more than 500 young adults and their children in the clinic in 2022. She then outlined performance outcomes, with 93% of youth served by their housing department securing housing, 95% have stable housing, and 88% of youth gained positive educational outcomes. She added that they have 84 landlords and housing partners, as well as 52 collaborators in the TIL System of Care.

She then outlined FLITE's next steps, which include strategic planning focused on enhanced funding and resource development for long term sustainability, enhanced infrastructure and operations, and a model study for replication and expansion.

Ms. Malave encouraged Council Members to visit the FLITE Center for a tour.

For Council Meeting September 22, 2022

Service Goal 3.1 Reduce risk factors associated with delinquency, teen pregnancy, substance abuse, school dropout, and other risky behaviors.

Objective: 031 Provide innovative youth development programs that engage middle school students attending high-need schools and/or living in high poverty conditions to promote school success and community

Issue: Add Youth FORCE Program Site at Pines Middle School for FY

22/23.

Action: Approve Youth FORCE Contract Adjustment for Hispanic Unity of Florida, Inc. to serve youth at Pines Middle School.

Budget Impact: $ 198,400 of $2,007,744 Available in Unallocated for FY 22/23.

Background: Since 2008, the Council has been committed to serving "at promise" middle school youth during out-of-school time. The desired population for Youth FORCE programs is students attending high-need middle schools where 80% or more students qualify for Free and Reduced Lunch (FRL). Year-round services include counseling and case management, academic support, fitness and nutrition activities, employability skills training, cultural arts and enrichment opportunities, community service learning, and TOP prevention education clubs. The current Youth FORCE programs started at the beginning of the 2020-2021 school year under the 2020 Positive Youth Development (PYD) RFP.

In May 2021, under the 2021 Positive Youth Development RFP expansion, the Council awarded Hispanic Unity of Florida, Inc. (HUF) funding for services at Pines Middle School. Although he had previously supported this application, after the awards were announced, the Pines Middle School principal declined the PYD RFP award for school year 21/22 and decided to continue with afterschool services through another private fee based out-of- school-time provider. A portion of the allocated money for Pines Middle School was retained by HUF to address the waitlist at Apollo Middle School the rest was returned to Unallocated.

Current Status: The new principal at Pines Middle School, Ms. Aycock, the former principal of Apollo Middle School, contacted HUF to request the Youth FORCE program for FY 22/23 as families are not able to afford the fees associated with the private out-of-school time provider. HUF currently offers Youth FORCE programming at four school sites, which are at or on track to reach capacity by the end of the month. As this site was previously awarded to HUF, Staff recommends allocating $198,400 to allow HUF to serve 35 youth at Pines Middle School.

Recommended Action: Approve Youth FORCE Contract Adjustment for Hispanic Unity of Florida, Inc. to serve youth at Pines Middle School.

TAB 24

For Council Meeting September 22, 2022

Service Goal 2.1 Reduce the incidence of child abuse, neglect, and trauma.

Objective: 0.2.2 Provide support services for families with children in relative

(Kinship) and non-relative care in collaboration with local partners to prevent foster or institutional care.

Issue: MHA Kinship Contract Extension

Action: Approve MHA Kinship Contract Extension through January 31, 2023.

Budget Impact: $15,000 of $178,987 Available from their FY 22/23 Contract

Allocation.

The FY 21/22 contract is under-utilized. The remaining allocation will be used over the four-month extension to fund services along with the $15,000.

Background: During the May 19th Budget Retreat, Mental Health America of Southeast Florida's (MHA) Kinship contract was deferred due to being on a Corrective Action Plan (CAP) to address service delivery and documentation issues. The concerns included missed case management opportunities to connect families to resources, unexplained services gaps, and incomplete case notes that lacked relevant detail.

Current Status: In response to the CAP, the provider developed new policies and procedures. Additionally, they have hired a Quality Control Supervisor and a Director of Services for improved program oversight and filled the vacant case manager position. Together with the program supervisor, the new management team is overseeing the implementation of the CAP to ensure quality services on an ongoing basis. Although some program service improvements were noted, the provider will continue to remain on the CAP until all issues are resolved and improvements are consistently implemented. Staff recommends extending the contract through January 31, 2023, to give MHA time to resolve the CAP. If they successfully close out the CAP, staff will bring forward a recommendation for renewal for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Recommended Action: Approve MHA Kinship Contract Extension through January 31, 2023.

For Council Meeting September 22. 2022

Service Goal 2.1 Reduce the incidence of child abuse, neglect and trauma.

Objective: 021 Provide effective family strengthening services to prevent child maltreatment.

Issue: Opportunity to Leverage State Low Income Pool (LIP) Funding to allow expansion of services.

Action: Approve LOA with the Agency for Health Care Administration

(AHCA) on behalf of Henderson Behavioral Health.

Budget Impact: No Impact.

Background: In State Fiscal Year 2018/19, the State of Florida expanded access to the Federal Low-Income Pool (LIP) funds to include coverage for health care costs, including mental health services, for which compensation is not available from other payors. Under the current LIP program, the State does not provide any general revenue as matching funds and requires all match to come from local governmental entities. Last year the required match rate for the State was 38.97%. The Council has been the Leverage Entity for the Henderson Behavioral Center's LIP Agreement with the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA) since FY19/20. In FY 21/22, the CSC paid AHCA $90,282 of CSC's contract with Henderson for Multi-Systemic Therapy Services (MST), which AHCA in turn paid to Henderson along with the Federal LIP matching funds which allowed them to assist over 750 additional clients through their client call center.

Current Status: For FY 22/23 Henderson has requested that we continue this partnership. As in previous agreements, there will be no additional costs to CSC. Henderson will continue to provide MST services as outlined in their on-going contract, but CSC will pay AHCA an amount not to exceed the $415,000 that is available for Match out of the Henderson MST FY 22/23 contract – likely closer to $100,000 - 150,000. The State is still developing how much funding they have available for LIP and the required match rate for this year, but based on prior years, it will likely be approximately 38% which will generate additional funding for services. It is important to approve this agreement now so that contracting can proceed once the final numbers are received.

Recommended Action: Approve LOA with the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA) on behalf of Henderson Behavioral Health.

TAB 26

For Council Meeting September 22. 2022

Service Goal SYS 1.2 Research and Evaluate Systems of Care.

Objective: SYS 923 Collaborate with community partnerships to promote child and family research initiatives.

Issue: Asset Based Community Development

Action: Approve funding to extend Center for Social Change Consulting

Agreement

Budget Impact: Not to exceed $20,000 of $170,000 Available in Goal 923 for FY 22/23.

Background: In April 2021, the Council approved funding for two Asset Based Community Development (ABCD) pilots in the cities of Lauderhill and Fort Lauderdale. The Center for Social Change served as the Fiscal Sponsor for the FERN Collective who (1) provided training and coaching on the core authentic community engagement strategies required to implement and ABCD project; (2) organized and then competitively selected residents living within the most at-promise areas of the two cities to serve on neighborhood Civic Design Teams (CDT); (3) coached the CDT to implement community listening sessions; (4) facilitated the CDT asset mapping exercise based upon their findings from the community listening campaign, and, (5) guided the CDT funding for small community projects created by residents to build upon the assets in their neighborhoods. Based on the initial success of the ABCD CDTs, the Council approved additional funding for FY 22–23 to sustain and expand ABCD hubs.

Current Status: A procurement was released in July 2022 to sustain and expand the ABCD neighborhood hubs. There were no completed applications for the procurement. After the procurement closed, staff met with potential applicants to understand the barriers and opportunities. As a result of the feedback, staff are redesigning the procurement and will be meeting city staff and residents from the potential ABCD hubs in the coming months to prepare recommendations for the Council in January 2023. Additionally, staff are exploring sustainability options with the cities to share the costs for the existing hubs in Lauderhill and Fort Lauderdale.

Staff recommend extending the current consulting agreement with Center for Social Change that expires on September 30, 2022 to end on December 31, 2022 to sustain and grow the existing relationships with residents, their ABCD knowledge and skills, and the exploration of potential community areas of focus (ie., positive youth development, education, mental health, workforce development, etc.). The agreement funds stipends for the 13 Civic Design Team members (five in Lauderhill, eight in Fort Lauderdale), ABCD facilitators, and administrative costs.

Recommended Action: Approve funding to extend Center for Social Change Consulting Agreement.

For Council Meeting September 22, 2022

Service Goal 1 Support provider agency efforts to enhance their infrastructure and service delivery effectiveness.

Objective: 011 Provide training, coaching and technical assistance to improve organizational effectiveness.

Issue: Infrastructure Building Capacity Grant Award Recommendations

Action: Approve Infrastructure Building Capacity Grant Project Funding

Awards, SBDC Coaching, Consulting, and Technical Assistance for

FY 22/23.

Budget Impact: $ 163,691 Of $250,000 Available in Goal 011 for FY 22/23.

Background: Through our Agency Capacity Building (ACB) initiatives, the CSC provides organizational development support to local nonprofits (NPO) serving children and families). One of the key resources provided through ACB is the annual Infrastructure Building Capacity Grant. The grant supports activities that enable nonprofits to strengthen and grow their infrastructure. It provides project funding, coaching, consulting, and technical assistance to targeted small, mid-sized, and niche nonprofits. To ensure that each awarded NPO maximizes project funding, the CSC has partnered with the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) of Fort Lauderdale to provide oversight of all Infrastructure Building Capacity Grant projects and conduct comprehensive organizational assessments. This extraordinarily successful partnership with SBDC has previously yielded results well beyond projected expectations. As evident, many of the past awardees continue to engage with SBDC for support and business coaching after the conclusion of their grant cycle. Moreover, the CSC contracts with SBDC to provide targeted coaching and technical assistance to grant applicants that were not selected for funding. This gesture allotted SBDC an opportunity to help better prepare those applicants for future funding opportunities. As a result, several of those nonprofits have subsequently received the CSC capacity grants.

Current Status: A rating committee received and evaluated submissions for the 2022- 2023 Infrastructure Building Capacity Grants. Eleven (11) proposals were rated and based on proposal review and applicant interviews:

- •Seven (7) are being recommended to the Council to receive project funding totaling $114,500 and coaching and technical assistance from SBDC, totaling $41,316.
- •Four (4) are being recommended to the Council to receive targeted coaching, consulting, and technical assistance from SBDC, totaling $7,875.

See the attached schedule for the award details.

Recommended Action: Approve Infrastructure Building Capacity Grant Project Funding Awards, SBDC Coaching, Consulting, and Technical Assistance for FY 22/23

Plans.

Action: Approve Public Awareness Media and Collateral Purchase Plan.

Budget Impact: $363,900 Of $400,000 Available in Goal 932 for FY 22/23.

This work is done with the understanding that we live in a diverse community that accesses and utilizes information in many ways.

Current Status: At the May Budget Retreat, the Council approved a $400,000 budget for mainstream and niche media, to support a variety of CSC-led public awareness campaigns as well as to promote CSC funded services. CSC staff and M Network continually review and assess the effectiveness of CSC's media strategy and evaluate engagement with media partners and vendors according to the varied audiences and events. For Council Meeting September 22, 2022

Issue: Budget Amendments and Interim Financial Statements for the Period

Ending August 31, 2022.

Action: Approve Interim Financial Statements for Period Ending August 31, 2022.

Budget Impact: None.

Background: The Interim Budget Amendments and Financial Statements are attached for review and approval. Programmatic billing runs a month behind; the administrative costs are presented through August 31, 2022.

As a reminder, staff continues to work on the implementation of the report writer as Phase 2 of the Open Gov project continues. Staff will reach out to the Finance Committee and any other interested Council Members for input into the financial statement redesign as soon as something is available. Staff appreciates the Council's support and patience during this transition.

Current Status: The major financial highlights of the period include:

- ◆ 99% Of Revenue Collected: As of August 31, 2022, CSC has collected $99.3M in tax revenue, which is approximately 99.8% of the of the $99.4M annual tax revenue budget.
- ◆ The Broward Up Promise Grant was reduced from $500,000 to $300,000 due to the late start executing the contract with Broward College. However, the overall grant was not reduced, and it is anticipated that the $200,000 will be reallocated at some point during the 5-year term of the grant. The budget amendments reducing grant income and corresponding contract reductions are reflected in these statements.
- ◆ Program Services Expenditures Continue to be Underutilized: The Program Goals report, (starting on page 7) shows that many CSC-funded programs are underutilized due to various issues. For those programs that have large variances between percent of budget and ideal, comments are noted outlining individual circumstances for that program. Generally, the reasons for the underutilization vary including difficulties hiring staff, getting referrals, regular attendance, lower enrollment, etc., which are related to the lingering effects of the pandemic.

Recommended Action: Approve Interim Financial Statements for Period Ending August 31, 2022.

Children's Services Council of Broward County Notes to the Financial Statements August 31, 2022

- (1) The Children's Services Council of Broward County ("CSC") budgets, as revenue, 95% of the property taxes levied, as allowed by state statute.
- (2) The modified accrual basis of accounting is utilized by CSC. Under the modified accrual basis, revenues are recognized in the accounting period in which they become available and measurable. Expenditures are recognized in the accounting period in which the liability is incurred, if measurable.
- (3) Funds invested in the SBA, and the Florida PALM accommodate pool participants with readily available cash. The pool follows GASB Statement No. 31 which outlines two options for accounting and reporting for money market investment pools as either "2a-7 like fund" or fluctuation of the net asset value ("NAV"). CSC accounts for investments funds using the first method.

 The Managed Investment Fund consists of longer-term securities for the core investments. This fund is managed by PFM in accordance with CSC's Investment Policy. US Bank provides the custodial cash services. This longer-term portfolio maintains safety while adding additional yield to the overall investments. The Finance committee receives quarterly updates on this portfolio.
- (4) Fund Balance is broken out into the following categories:

Nonspendable-Represents amounts that cannot be spent because they are either (a) not in a spendable form or (b) legally or contractually required to remain intact. Balance includes Prepaid expenses and FSA deposits.

Committed for Building Fund-Fund Balance committed for Building Fund to prepare for future growth.

Assigned for Programs-Includes the remaining budget balance appropriated for all FY 21-22 programs and the related program support.

Assigned for Administration-The amount reserved for administrative costs includes the remaining budget balance appropriated for general administrative and capital outlay expenditures for FY 2021/22.

Unassigned Fund Balance includes Minumum Fund Balance of 17% or two months of the annual operating budget. GASB recognizes this as a Best Practice model for governments. The remaining unassigned fund balance represents the residual fund balance that has not been assigned to other funds, and is not restricted, committed or assigned for specific purposes within the General Fund. Unassigned fund balance changes as revenue is received and actual expenditures are incurred.

For Council Meeting September 22, 2022

Issue: Monthly Statements for the Managed Fund.

Action: Accept Monthly Statements for the Managed Fund from PFM and

US Bank for August 2022.

Budget Impact: N/A.

Background: At the November 18, 2021 Council Meeting, the Council approved establishing a Managed Investment Fund consisting of longer-term securities for the core investments. This fund is managed by PFM in accordance with CSC's Investment Policy with US Bank providing the custodial cash services. This longer-term portfolio maintains safety while adding additional yield to the overall investments. Together, PFM and US Bank manage the fund which will be measured against several highly respected industry performance indexes to ensure the portfolio remains on track.

Current Status: In accordance with the Investment policy, the Council approved at the June 2022 meeting, that staff would bring forth a summary of the monthly statements from both PFM and US Bank to the Council; however, if any Council Member has questions or wants additional information, the entire statement is available for review. It is important to note that these two statements reflect the activities of the overall portfolio and do not indicate the performance of the fund. A month following each quarter end, PFM will present a fund performance report to the Finance Committee of which any Council Member is welcome to attend.

Recommended Action: Accept Monthly Statements for the Managed Fund from PFM and US Bank for August 2022.

ASSET SUMMARY MESSAGES

Estimated Annual Income is an estimate provided for informational purposes only and should not be relied on for making investment, trading, or tax decisions. The estimates may not represent the actual value earned by your investments and they provide no guarantee of what your investments may earn in the future.

For Council Meeting September 22, 2022

Issue: CSC Monthly Purchases for Administrative Operations.

Action: 1. Approve CSC Monthly/Annual Purchases for September 2022.

2. Approve CSC Monthly/Annual Purchases for FY 2022/2023.

Budget Impact: See Attached Reports.

Background: The State Statute creating and governing the CSC, Chapter 2000-461, as amended, states:

Section 6: No funds of the council shall be expended except by check as aforesaid, except the expenditure of petty cash or the issuance of checks made payable for sums no greater than $5,000, shall be expended without prior approval of the council, in addition to the budgeting thereof.

The Council's procurement policies and procedures stipulate that expenditures are approved by the Council prior to being expended. As such, the financial system requires a Council Approval (CA) date at multiple points throughout the system including all processed payments. Internal controls for tracking expenditures in accordance with the statute are validated by auditors every year and there have been no significant deviations since the inception of the Council.

Since 2004 at the Council's direction, staff was instructed to only provide back-up material for purchases when the item is over $10,000. As always, back-up for purchases below $10,000 are available upon request.

Current Status: In accordance with policy, please find attached the Invoices, Travel, Purchase Orders, Sponsorships, etc. for the month of September, 2022.

Also attached is a separate report for Invoices, Travel, Purchase Orders, Sponsorships, etc. for FY 2022/23. The bulk of these items are routine, administrative items which were included in the Administrative Budget presented to and approved by the Council at the June 16, 2022 meeting. We have indicated procurement items and status for selected larger priced items that require multiple quotes or other bids as outlined in the Purchasing Policies and Procedures. Since most of these are annual amounts which get paid monthly or are blanket POs which are issued but only expended as needed, we have only included back-up for those items exceeding $75,000.

To facilitate reviewing the various purchases, staff has segregated the items into various categories.

Additionally, due to contractual timing issues for items beginning Oct 1st, this packet includes a partial list of proposed Trainers, Administrative and Programmatic purchases for the upcoming fiscal year 2022/23.

Additional information for any expenditure is available upon request. As always, all purchases for either fiscal year are within the budgets approved by the Council.

Recommended Action: 1. Approve CSC Monthly/Annual Purchases for September 2022

2. Approve CSC Monthly/Annual Purchases for FY 2022/23

For Council Meeting September 22, 2022

Issue: Training Opportunity developed by the Black Administrators in Child

Welfare's Sankofa Institute.

Action: Approve the Sankofa Institute Leadership Training Expenses.

Budget Impact: $ 10,000 of $27,467 Available in Program Administrative Dues and Fees for FY 21/22.

Background: The Black Administrators in Child Welfare have developed a yearlong 12 session leadership training series called Sankofa Institute: Fostering the Success of African American Leaders Through Executive Development. The Sankofa Institute (SI) course outline was developed by nationally recognized African American leaders in child welfare. The sessions have been carefully curated to address multiple dimensions in child welfare from both a historic and contemporary lens.

This leadership development opportunity utilizes group sessions, as well as dedicated mentoring with an established African American leader, to heighten one's specific leadership style. Upon graduation from the Institute, each participant is invited to become an active member of the Sankofa Institute Alumni Network in strengthening the mentorships and sponsorships required to address the nationwide need for African American leaders in child welfare.

Current Status: In January 2022, Dion Smith, Director of Program Services was accepted to participate in the inaugural class and has been attending the monthly two-day trainings either virtually or in-person. In person sessions are hosted at the Johnson C. Smith University Charlotte in North Carolina. The fee for the Sankofa Institute trainings is inclusive of transportation, meals and accommodations.

The cohort is comprised of leaders from around the country with senior and executive level positions in child welfare. Graduation is scheduled for January 2023. BACW recently submitted their invoice for $10,000 and are requesting immediate payment. A portion of the training expense may be reimbursable under Title IV E.

Recommended Action: Approve the Sankofa Institute Leadership Training Expenses

A quorum was established with Daniel Schevis, Robert Mayersohn, Joel Smith, Jarvis Brunson, Monica King, Paige Patterson-Hughes, Elida Segrera, Sara Gillespie Cummings, Evan Goldman, Veda Hudge, Sandra Veszi Einhorn, and Commissioner Jared Moskowitz present.

Cassandra Evans, Julia Musella, and Kim Gorsuch attended virtually via Microsoft Teams.

Members absent: Debra Hixon

Staff Members in attendance: Keith Bostick, Human Services Department (HSD); Silvia Beebe, Community Partnerships Division (CPD); LaToya Davenport Toussaint, Children's Services Administration (CSA); Sean Morales, CSA.

The Chair asked that all Board members and County staff introduce themselves for this first in-person meeting post-pandemic.

3. Approval of CSB April 15, 2022, Minutes

Motion: To approve the meeting minutes as presented by staff.

First: Sandra Veszi Einhorn

Second: Paige Patterson Hughes Declaration of Conflict: None

4. Chair Report

Chair asked LaToya Davenport Toussaint to discuss the appointment and reappointment process and indicated that Kim Gorsuch has submitted her letter of resignation.

Kim Gorsuch addressed the Board regarding her history with the Board and encouraged members to submit names of potential replacements to Commissioner Fisher.

The Chair asked Keith Bostick to address the Board.

Mr. Bostick reported that CSA facilitated conversations with nine providers who are underutilizing their allocations and shared what has been done, what has been learned, and the plan going forward. The most common themes were issues around staff recruitment. The County also acknowledged that there needs to be improvements around the HSD/CPD procurement process and how services are funded prior to the next RFP release.

Regarding the CSA contract with the School Board, Mr. Bostick reported that the County spent a significant amount of time with School Board staff, looking at where they are now and how to improve service quality and increase utilization. The County feels very positive with the information and action plan from the new School Board team and hopes their plan will increase quality and utilization.

Mr. Bostick indicated that the Division will be putting forward a request for County Administration to consider some type of administrative relief or support to providers due to provider's inability to hire, escalating housing costs and transportation costs.

The Chair opened the floor for discussion. This discussion included a request for County staff to re-evaluate contract reimbursement rates, allowable taxonomy definitions and activities, and allowing startup costs to be reimbursed. There was also an additional request from Mr. Mayersohn asking for County staff to inquire about option to rollover unspent funds into the new fiscal year. An update regarding the rollover inquiry will be provided by County staff at a subsequent meeting.

There was continued discussion amongst Board members regarding how the hiring crisis and current economic state is affecting provider's ability to provide services and how some are addressing these challenges.

The Chair asked the Board members to review and consider the reallocation recommendations.

Motion: To approve reallocation recommendations.

First: Joel Smith

Last week: The story this week of a Deerfield Beach teenager being brutalized by other teenagers for the second time because of his sexual orientation is a stark reminder that words matter and hate-filled rhetoric leads to violence. There are varying opinions about when and what children should learn about sex and sexuality, but I hope we can all agree that we are all human beings who deserve to be safe in our communities. As adults, we have an obligation to not dehumanize those we disagree with. Our children are listening, watching and acting on our example.

Mindful moments: Broward students being taught tools for centering and focus to manage stressful times

By Scott Luxor
Sun Sentinel Correspondent

Aug 11, 2022 at 12:28 pm

Pressure-filled times call for innovative measures to deal with them. And Broward County students are susceptible to the greater stresses of life today.

Stresses for teens in particular have been mounting over recent years, starting with the shooting in Parkland, racial tensions enhanced by the killing of George Floyd and the COVID-19 pandemic. All of these realities have created an unusual amount of tension, on top of the usual worries about passing tests, social media and trying to get into college, according to teachers of mindfulness.

The definition of mindfulness has been described as "the practice of purposely bringing one's attention in the present moment without evaluation, a skill one develops through meditation or other training".

Broward County schools have implemented various techniques to find the right tools to help students to deal with the curve balls that life throws their way.

The Children's Services Council of Broward County and Broward County Public Schools have been working with organizations like the Center for Mind-Body Medicine, along with Knellee Bisram, founder and CEO of AHAM Education to implement programs for both teachers and students to discover a better way of dealing with unpredictable life circumstances.

Teaching mindful ways

The AHAM Education organization is the primary vehicle for bringing the tools to the school district for teaching mindfulness to educators and students.

Broward County Public Schools created the Superintendent's Mindfulness Initiative in partnership with AHAM. SMI is the first district-led program teaching mindfulness-based tools to youth in South Florida.

AHAM works with students, educators and parents on mindfulness tools that "build balance, resilience, compassion and empathy." The project is meant to improve both academic and social-emotional results for children and families in Broward.

Bisram said mindfulness has been slowly integrated into the school district over the last five years.

"We started our first pilot project in 2017 with the schools," she said. "Then when the Parkland shooting happened in 2018, there was a sudden interest in mindfulness, primarily to help the kids and the families in Parkland to deal with the tragedy."

The impact of the shooting on students in Broward was palpable and district leaders began looking for ways of helping them cope with the sudden stress that the youth were experiencing.

Bisram said after the shooting the Children's Services Council of Broward and the school district received a grant from Priscilla Chan Zuckerberg, the wife of Facebook CEO Mark Zuckerberg, that funded the first round. They brought in the Center for Mind-Body Medicine to start training teachers, counselors and the community.

"As a result of all of the training, AHAM created a Mind-Body Resiliency Coalition with the CSC of Broward," Bisram said. "What we do is to bring together all of the professionals and initiatives that are infusing mindfulness into the lives of children and families through the school system."

Defining mindfulness

Bisram said she understands that there is some confusion and misunderstanding about what mindfulness means.

"Mindfulness is about providing tools that help people to cultivate awareness," she said. "That, in turn, helps to cultivate everything from skills and stress management, self-regulation, empathy, compassion and focused attention."

Bisram said for young people, mindfulness tends to be related to their ability and their readiness to learn to deal with their emotions. She said that the term most people are familiar with is emotional intelligence, but mindfulness goes beyond that.

"At the foundational level, it's really building an awareness of your own experience in relation to your 'self' and your thoughts," she said. "It's about dealing with the things that arise in you because of all of your experiences, which are ultimately happening within us. It's also an awareness of how we feel and about our interactions with others and with the world. Fundamentally, it's about learning how to deal with life in general."

Bisram said that at this point, there's a lot of emphasis on dealing with stress, because of the pace of society, as well as the over-exposure of so many kinds to stimuli. Then, there are the obvious tragedies and events that can cause emotional trauma. Without proper training, people go into a reactionary mode, which can cause a lot of stress, she said.

"We are built to often go into that fight or flight response, even when we're not in an emergency-type situation," Bisram said. "What happens is that, if we haven't prepared ourselves from a young age how to be in healthy relationships and to regulate our reactions, then that can cause problems for us."

She also said that mindfulness helps with being able to bounce back from a stressor. If people are not able to come back from that, it can become chronic.

"With young people, we teach them the skills which help them to be able to pay attention, to quiet the mind and to notice what they're experiencing and how to deal with that," she said.

Mindfulness practice helps young people in several ways, depending on the type of practices they do, Bisram said. There are two main directions that mindfulness is approached for youth.

"There is focused awareness and attention practice, which really helps us to cultivate the ability to come back to an anchor 'place' or to pay attention," she said. "That practice is really just about training the brain to choose what you focus on.

"There's another skill, which is basically the opposite of focused attention practice," she said. "It's about broadening or opening attention, where the goal is expansion. The goal is to create an awareness in the way where you can choose what you focus on. This awareness also helps you to catch even the emotion or the thought rising in you or even the thought arising in you. That's what we call self-regulation."

Bisram said that the expansive method of mindfulness impacts children's ability to relate interpersonally in a way so that there are fewer triggers for them. Then, for instance, there's not going to be as much bullying happening in or out of schools.

Teaching mindfulness to teachers

One efficient way that mindfulness training is spread in classrooms is by teaching the teachers themselves.

"When we do teacher training, we always start with teaching them as if they're going to have their own practice," Bisram said. "So if the teachers themselves are never able to teach mindfulness in the classroom, they at least are able to be a model of that level of awareness. And it's contagious being around people who are very 'present' in their life."

She said that what they find in testimonials from teachers is that once they've learned a mindfulness technique, they're able to have a more creative way of working with children once they misbehave. That way, the teachers are not as stressed when they're in the classroom and they're able to really give more to the students."

Nerissa Street, an interactive communications teacher in Broward, said she is a big believer in the efforts of the school system to bring mindfulness to the students.

"I have some space within my class time to use the techniques of mindfulness to help the students become more self-aware, and to have the capacity to deal with the normal educational frustrations that happen in high school," she said.

As a teacher, Street said that she appreciates the way that the Broward School Board partnered with the Center for Mind-Body Medicine in training teachers who were interested in mindfulness. They didn't make it mandatory, but they did make it available to all of the teachers.

"Teacher training in mindfulness often leads to one technique of asking students to check in with how they're feeling after we do a particularly rigorous lesson," she said. "There's a lot of science that validates incorporating 'brain breaks' into academics. It helps assist students to be more resilient, and to have more stamina for the lesson."

Street said that she likes incorporating tools like having a "mindful moment" for the students, which is actually something that is a district-wide practice. Her mindful moment for students happens at the beginning of the day, as the students come in and settle into the class. Basically, she gives a bit of time to sit silently and reflect, to calm down and center themselves.

"Maybe they ran directly from breakfast, or the bus might have been late," she said. "Maybe they forgot their student ID. What's really great about giving them silent time, is that if the student has some sort of practice, whether it's religious or secular, it gives a space for that as well."

Street looks at mindfulness in the classroom as a way of "checking in." She said they're encouraged to ask themselves if they're OK, or if they might be frustrated at something that didn't go well.

"I just want them to examine what could be going on internally," she said. "Then I want them to give themselves some space to clear that feeling or emotion so that they can be prepared for the day."

Other than the classroom, Street runs a regular mindfulness session on Sundays for people to connect or reconnect with themselves on the beach. On one day, dozens of adults and some youth gathered at Dania Beach where Street guided them through conversation and mindful moments. The time there was capped off with participants gathered in a circle together in the ocean to share connections and thoughts about what's going on in their lives.

The ongoing beach event is part of Street's philosophy that it's important to have mindfulness inside institutional settings as well as in their daily lives.

Children Services Council adopts mindfulness

The core mission of the Children's Services Council is to provide leadership, advocacy and the resources necessary to "enhance the lives of the children of Broward County and empower them to become responsible, productive adults through collaborative planning and funding of a continuum of quality care." When it comes to supporting the direction of mindfulness for youth they serve, the council has gone all in with the support.

Cindy Arenberg Seltzer, president and CEO of CSC Broward, said that ever since the nonprofit started working with mindfulness training several years ago to support youth, they have even adopted it within their own organization as well.

Cindy Arenberg Seltzer (Scott Luxor / Contributor)

"We had been dipping our toe into the mindfulness world through a partnership with Knellee Bisram from AHAM Education around 2017," she said. "Then after the shooting in Parkland, we were really looking for ways to help address the trauma of the students and their families."

Seltzer points out that mindfulness training works with all socio-economic levels as well as all races and genders. This way, it's not just for students who come from families with resources. It's also a culturally neutral practice that works for students of any background.

"I went through the training and thought it was phenomenal," Seltzer said. "We started out by training people to become trainers to run groups. So the way that works is a five-day very intensive introduction and then a second five-day intensive where you're practicing running groups."

Seltzer said she lives in Parkland and has experienced some of the vicarious trauma from the tragedy in 2018. She said the mindfulness training has been transformative for her.

Since the CSC doesn't work directly in the classrooms, Seltzer said that they have been working to get mindfulness training deployed in after-school programs, especially those for middle school and high school students. She said they also work with elementary schools where they feel they can make use of it.

"We fund about 150 programs throughout the county," Seltzer said. "Throughout our whole panoply of services, as well as trauma services, we have been training people on mindfulness who can run groups and deploy them to run groups in different nonprofits with young people."

Seltzer pointed out that, although mindfulness is not a magic bullet, it is a good tool. It's not just for the therapists to have but for an individual to use for themselves.

"When people feel out of control, and everything is random, that heightens your anxiety," she said. "So knowing that you have the capability of doing something that you don't need anybody else for, and that it's completely under your own control, is empowering.

"You can use it anytime, in the middle of a class, as you're walking or whenever," Seltzer said. "You don't need any equipment, except your own breath and your own brain. It's a valuable gift for a young person to have."

A parent's perspective

Idelma Quintana is a parent of Ian, a 19-year-old in Hollywood who has been through mindfulness training. She has seen the positive changes that have happened for him.

"One of the things that I think is really fascinating about being a parent is that I learn lessons from my child every day," Quintana said. "I see how he responds to stress in ways that are very similar to how we as parents respond to stress. It makes me really try to focus on myself as a role model."

Quintana said that, during the last two-and-a-half years, Ian was mostly at home because of COVID. Like a lot of kids, he was pretty much stuck in his room with the computer. Quintana said the experience did a number on him socially and emotionally being isolated like that.

"My husband and I were naturally stressed during that time as well," she said. "For myself, I had to decide what I can do to figure out how to manage my stress, because I knew for sure that if I don't develop some new practices that I was going to get sick."

Quintana started out seeking a way to manage her own stress and she found out through her son's teacher, Nerissa Street, that there was a group meeting at the beach that focused on mindfulness. Quintana said she started attending the group to take care of her own health. Then she started noticing that it was making a big difference.

"I saw that in photos, I looked more rested," she said. "I didn't have big circles under my eyes and my physical appearance started to change. My son had a crisis of anxiety of his own, so I started bringing him with me to the beach group. Now, Ian and I go together most Sundays and practice mindfulness together."

Quintana said that her son has been affected by the practice.

"Now he's very open, and unashamed about his emotional experience," she said. "That is different, since teenagers often have trouble doing that. They're generally afraid of speaking about their emotions. Whenever he's anxious, I can just remind him to take deep belly breaths and he knows exactly what that means. It gives me a tool to help him when they see him kind of spiraling into anxiety."

$600,000 in State Funding for Eagles' Haven Wellness Center

Coral Springs, FL — Earlier this week, Representative Christine Hunschofsky (D-Parkland) and Senator Tina Polsky (D-Boca Raton) presented Eagles' Haven Wellness Center with a check for $600,000. Eagles Haven Wellness Center opened its doors in March of 2019, after the tragic school shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. Since then, they have provided the community with crisis intervention, licensed mental health clinicians, navigator services, wellness experiences, and classes, all free of charge to students, parents, and teachers.

Senator Polsky stated: "Eagles' Haven is such an important resource for the greater Parkland community. This appropriation comes just in time when the federal funding was about to expire. Now these crucial mental health services will remain available thanks to the $600,000 in state funds to continue these services for the community."

Representative Hunschofsky stated: "As the former Mayor of Parkland, I worked with community partners such as the Children's Services Council of Broward County and others to establish a resilience center in the aftermath of the tragic shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. Eagles' Haven Wellness Center became that person-focused place for anyone needing help to go to for whatever referrals or support they needed. While it has been over four years since the shooting, the need for trauma, mental health, and wellness support remains. I am very grateful that with this $600,000 in state funding, Eagles' Haven will continue to be able to support our community."

Sarah Franco with Eagles' Haven stated: "With the trial of the shooter underway, being able to support the community with wellness services and therapeutic support was more important than ever. Eagles' Haven and the entire Parkland/Coral Springs community are so grateful to Representative Christine Hunschofsky and Senator Tina Polsky for this life-changing appropriation of $600k, representing 50% of our annual budget."

By Kevin Deutsch on August 31, 2022

State Representative Christine Hunschofsky (D-Parkland) and state Senator Tina Polsky (D-Boca Raton) on Tuesday presented Eagles' Haven Wellness Center with a check for $600,000 in state-appropriated funds.

A Coral Springs-based nonprofit, Eagles' Haven offers free crisis support, case management, support groups, yoga, creative art classes, meditation, dance, and other wellness experiences aimed at helping Parkland and Coral Springs heal from the 2018 Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School shooting.

"Eagles' Haven is such an important resource for the greater Parkland community," said Polsky. "This appropriation comes just in time, when the federal funding [for Eagles' Haven] was about to expire. Now, these crucial mental health services will remain available thanks to the $600,000 in state funds to continue these services for the community."

Hunschofsky, the former mayor of Parkland, said she worked with community partners like the Children's Services Council of Broward County to establish a resilience center after the Valentine's Day shooting at MSD.

"Eagles' Haven Wellness Center became that person-focused place for anyone needing help to go to for whatever referrals or support they needed," Hunschofsky said. "While it has been over four years since the shooting, the need for trauma, mental health, and wellness support remains. I am very grateful that with this $600,000 in state funding, Eagles' Haven will continue to be able to support our community."

Sarah Franco, executive director of Eagles' Haven, called the appropriation "life-changing" and said it represents 50 percent of the organization's annual budget.

"With the trial of the shooter underway, being able to support the community with wellness services and therapeutic support was more important than ever. Eagles' Haven and the entire Parkland/Coral Springs community are so grateful to Rep. Christine Hunschofsky and Sen. Tina Polsky for this life-changing appropriation of $600,000, representing 50% of our annual budget," Sarah Franco, CEO of JAFCO, which runs Eagles' Haven with funding from the Children's Services Council, said in statement

The wellness center opened in 2019 at 5655 Coral Ridge Drive, after the mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, and offers crisis intervention, licensed mental health clinicians, navigator services, wellness experiences and classes, all free of charge to students, parents and teachers.

"Eagles' Haven is such an important resource for the greater Parkland community. This appropriation comes just in time when the federal funding was about to expire. Now these crucial mental health services will remain available thanks to the $600,000 in state funds to continue these services for the community," Sen. Polsky said in a statement.

DeSantis appoints four new Broward School Board members. Here's what we know about them

BY DEVOUN CETOUTE

UPDATED AUGUST 26, 2022 11:15 PM

Gov. Ron DeSantis appointed four men to the Broward County School Board to replace the four women he suspended Friday. Three of the new appointees have longstanding ties to the Broward Republican Party, DeSantis or his predecessor, U.S. Sen. Rick Scott.

The four new appointees are Torey Alston, Manuel "Nandy" A. Serrano, Ryan Reiter and Kevin Tynan, an attorney and former Broward School Board member.

Broward, Florida's most Democratic county, now has five of its nine School Board members appointed by DeSantis, the Republican governor. He had previously announced a replacement for a fifth member on the board after Rosalind Osgood was elected to the state Senate. Historically, school board members are elected in nonpartisan races; school districts are funded primarily by countywide property taxes.

The suspensions stem from a statewide grand jury report, released last week, that investigated the School Board's response to the Feb. 14, 2018, mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, which left 17 students and staffers dead and 17 injured. DeSantis convened the grand jury after the shooting.

Here are the appointees:

TOREY ALSTON

DeSantis appointed Alston, 38, to the Broward County Commission in November to replace Commissioner Dale Holness, who resigned to run for Congress. His term on the county commission was supposed to run through November 2024.

Prior to that, Alston was the Florida Department of Transportation's chief of staff for three years. He had also been chief of staff for two former Broward County commissioners, and was an executive director and economic equity and diversity compliance officer with Miami-Dade Public Schools.

He is president of Indelible Solutions, according to DeSantis' press release. He is also the president of three other companies: TCET Holding Companies, The Chess Group Inc. and the Blanche Ely Class of 2002 Inc., according to the Florida Division of Corporations.

Since 2013, he has contributed $4,470.20 to several Democratic and Republican candidates. Of that amount, $3,000 went to DeSantis on July 1, the most funds he has given to any one candidate.

RYAN REITER

Reiter, 36, is the director of government relations for Kaufman Lynn Construction, the state said. He is a Marine Corps veteran.

In 2015, he was featured in Florida Politics' "'30 under 30' rising stars of Florida politics". At the time he was an aide to former Broward County Commissioner Chip LaMarca.

He told Florida Politics that he worked on the reelection campaign of former Broward County Sheriff Al Lamberti and was a government affairs manager for the Children's Services Council of Broward County.

Reiter has also donated to DeSantis' campaign, making six contributions from March to July totaling $288.

MANUEL 'NANDY' A. SERRANO

Serrano sits on the Florida Sports Foundation Board of Directors, the state said. According to the organization's website, it is a nonprofit that supports sports in the state.

He is also the founder and CEO of Clubhouse Private Wealth, the state said. The firm's Linkedin profile describes itself as a financial consulting agency for athletes and other clients.

KEVIN TYNAN

Tynan, a former chairman of the Broward Republican Party, has previously served on the Broward County School Board. He was appointed to the board in 2009 by Gov. Charlie Crist, a Republican at the time. Crist is now running against DeSantis as the Democratic gubernatorial candidate in the November election.

Tynan had replaced Beverly Gallagher, a Broward School Board member who was suspended after she was arrested on federal corruption charges. Gallagher was ultimately convicted.

Tynan ran for the School Board in 2010 but he lost to Patricia Good, the current board vice chair who was suspended Friday by DeSantis.

Scott, when he was governor, appointed Tynan to Broward's Judicial Nominating Commission, which reviews applicants and recommends to the governor appointments for open judgeships. He is an attorney with the firm Richardson & Tynan.

Who are DeSantis' new Broward School Board appointments? 4 Republicans, 2 with insider School Board experience.

In remaking the Broward School Board on Friday, Gov. Ron DeSantis turned to four Republicans — two of whom have School Board experience and the kind of insider knowledge that could help them effect change in the problem-plagued School District.

The Republican governor has now appointed five of the nine School Board members in the overwhelmingly Democratic county.

"They're all excellent picks," said state Rep. Chip LaMarca, R-Lighthouse Point, said about Friday's appointments.

"It's going to be a short-term scenario. I hope they can really work together to resolve some of the issues that are in that [statewide grand jury] report," LaMarca said. One new member's seat will run through the 2024 election, while the three other appointments announced Friday expire just after the 2022 election later this fall.

The grand jury, convened at the request of DeSantis, recommended, in its report publicly released Aug. 19, that DeSantis suspend four School Board members. Seven days later DeSantis did so.

Another big change: Six months ago, all nine elected Broward School Board members were women. The five people DeSantis has appointed to School Board seats are all men.

Torey Alston

Torey Alston, 38, one of the new School Board members, had been serving on the Broward County Commission. He was appointed by DeSantis to fill a vacancy that started in January. Mayor Michael Udine said Alston resigned from the commission on Friday. The commission term Alston had been filling ended just after the November 2022 election.

LaMarca said the School Board seat Alston now holds runs through the 2024 election. The three other appointments announced Friday expire just after the 2022 election.

Alston, a Black Republican, unsuccessfully ran for a School Board seat in 2012 and previously served as a student representative to the School Board. He was an appointed by former Govs. Rick Scott and Charlie Crist as a Florida A&M University Trustee. Crist was a Republican during his previous term as governor; Now a Democrat, Crist won his party's nomination on Tuesday to run against DeSantis in November.

He is certain to shake up the School Board. He advocated for Broward voters to reject the school tax increase that was on Tuesday's election ballot — it passed — writing that "I cannot support this additional tax increase on Broward families."

As a member of the County Commission, he also objected to the political strategy employed by the School District to increase the chances of passage. Over Alston's objections, the School Board got his then-colleagues on the County Commission to put the referendum on the August ballot, knowing that the primary contests would draw a disproportionate number of Democrats to the polls. He wanted the referendum on the November ballot, when there is higher voter participation.

Before DeSantis made him a county commissioner, Alston was part of the DeSantis administration, serving as chief of staff at the Florida Department of Transportation. Years earlier he was an aide to former County Commissioner Barbara Sharief.

He is a graduate of Blanche Ely High School in Pompano Beach. At a news conference when DeSantis appointed him to the County Commission, Alston said, "I am a product of Broward County."

Kevin Tynan

Another DeSantis appointee, Kevin Tynan, has previous experience as an appointed member of the Broward School Board.

In 2009, he was appointed to replace Beverly Gallagher, who was suspended after her arrest on federal corruption charges. She was suspended and Tynan was appointed in 2009 by Crist.

Tynan, 63, ran for the job in 2010 but lost the election to Patricia Good, one of the four School Board members DeSantis suspended Friday for what he said was "clear evidence of incompetence, neglect of duty, misfeasance or malfeasance" detailed in the report of a statewide grand jury.

Tynan is a former chairman of the Broward Republican Party.

He was among the dozens of invited Republican guests in the audience on Aug. 18, when DeSantis appeared in a courtroom at the Broward County Courthouse to announce the Florida Department of Law Enforcement was arresting 20 people for allegedly voting illegally in 2020.

Tynan has been a gubernatorial appointee to the South Broward Hospital District Board, the government agency that's better known by its brand name Memorial Healthcare System.

He was an appointee to the Judicial Nominating Commission for Broward County, the panel that screens and recommends gubernatorial appointments for open judgeships, by former Gov. Rick Scott. He served as JNC chairman.

Ryan Reiter

Ryan Reiter, 36, who was an aide to LaMarca when LaMarca was a member of the Broward County commission is another new School Board member.

He has other government experience: after working for LaMarca, he went to work for the Children's Services Council, where he was instrumental in the strategy to win passage of a 2014 referendum in which Broward voters approved keeping the agency in business.

Reiter is currently the director of government relations at Kaufman Lynn Construction. The company's website shows it has worked on some public and non-public school and university construction projects, including reconstruction of Ford Lauderdale High School completed some years ago.

His experience in the field is significant, given the grand jury report. The biggest failure identified in the report was in the School District's failures in connection with $800 million of construction borrowing authorized by voters. Work has been mired in delays for years and costs have escalated, the grand jury found, faulting "years of mismanagement" from school district officials and the School Board's failure to hold those responsible accountable.

Reiter is a former Marine sergeant who served in Operation Iraqi Freedom and is also a past president of the Broward Young Republicans.

He is a graduate of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, the site of the Feb. 14, 2018, massacre in which a gunman killed 17 people.

Nandy Serrano

Manual "Nandy" A. Serrano, 52, doesn't have a political profile.

He is founder and CEO of the financial company Clubhouse Private Wealth, and has worked extensively as a financial adviser and in insurance, according to the biography on his firm's website.

"Nandy Serrano is a good pick considering the financial corruption that was outlined by the grand jury," said Richard DeNapoli, the Broward state Republican committeeman and former county party chairman. DeNapoli works in finance and knows Serrano through business.

Serrano played baseball at Florida State University and later professionally as a member of the Anaheim Angels organization. He was a member of the Puerto Rican baseball team at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain. As a member of the same team, he was a silver medalist at the 1991 Pan American games in Cuba.

He has also been a member of the board of the Florida Sports Foundation. The foundation is the official sports promotion and development entity of the state, operating through Enterprise Florida, the public-private economic development agency. DeSantis' office described him as a member of the board, but he wasn't listed Friday afternoon as a board member on the agency's website.

Good afternoon, Katrina, and all Reading Ambassadors!

First and foremost, I would like to thank all of you for supporting and volunteering for the 2022 Summer Breakspot Reading Ambassador Program! I appreciate the time and commitment to this amazing literacy initiative this year.

Reading aloud to children gives them the chance to develop communication, social, and literacy skills which are essential to further improving learning in school.

Katrina, the Literacy League, and I are grateful for all you did in organizing the CSC volunteers. Without you, Jocelin, Alexia, Laura, and everyone at CSC, the Reading Ambassador Program's success wouldn't have been possible.

I do hope that it was a great experience for all of you, and I look forward to working with everyone next year!

On behalf of HandsOn Broward's Literacy League Program and I, thank you again for your support, commitment and caring for this vital literacy initiative!

Best regards,

Jenny Del Valle Literacy Outreach Coordinator 5815 N Andrews Way Suite A Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309 Tel. # (954) 233-1290 Fax. # (954) 233-1292 www.handsonbroward.org

Children's Services Council of Broward County Attn: Kimberlee Reid 6600 West Commercial Boulevard Lauderhill, FL 33319-2105

Dear Kimberlee,

Thank you to the Children's Services Council of Broward County for your recent gift of $67,350 in June 2022 to Children's Literacy Initiative (CLI). We're grateful for your pledge payments on your pledges for the BCPS Expansion and Broward Model projects. By supporting CLI, you are helping create a more equitable education system, one that promotes early literacy, cultural competency, and equitable outcomes for all students, particularly Black and Latinx students who have long been disproportionately isolated from the resources to obtain the education they deserve.

Your gift ensures that no matter where and how learning takes place, teachers can meet children where they are using asset-based and culturally sustaining instructional practices. One example of this is Evan*, a student who worked with Sharon, one of CLI's literacy interventionists in Chicago. Evan began school with some major health struggles that affected his reading attainment. Though Evan was engaging and a great storyteller, he didn't see himself as a reader or a writer. Sharon knew that she could find a way to work with Evan's strengths and help him see reading as a joyous activity. Rather than emphasizing what was holding him back, reading became a reflection of Evan's genius and potential.

Evan told Sharon stories, she wrote them out, and they read and reread them together. Evan began to realize the purpose of reading and writing and that he had something to contribute. Sharon taught him the tools he needed to continue to read and write his own stories and those of others. Fast-forward, Evan is now a thriving 5th grader who sees and leverages his reading and writing gifts. We are helping students like Evan every day and we can only do it because of generous donors like you.

I am sincerely grateful for your support. If you have any questions, please contact Naimah Bilal, Chief Development Officer, at NBilal@cli.org. Thank you again for joining us in building a nation where every child possesses the power of literacy and the opportunity for a lifetime of success.

Warm regards,

Reina Prowler

Dear Danielle & Andrew,

On behalf of The King's League, we want to take this time to say thank you. Because of your generosity, we were able to provide over 150 children with backpacks and school supplies for the 2022-2023 school year. To encourage the children to demonstrate social skills, we gave them a shopping experience by allowing them to visit a variety of tables filled with different school supplies. They were provided a school supply shopping list and were able to pick out the backpack and school supplies of their choice. The children were very excited and grateful to shop and pick out the items they needed for school. We could not have done this without your support. It was truly an overwhelming experience to see the smiles on so many children's faces. We look forward to many more events that will enhance the lives of our children and are so grateful to have your support.

We have attached some photographs to give you a glimpse of how your sponsorship made a difference. Enjoy and we look forward to working with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Marcetinna King, President
